

Ms. Chetna Boriwal
Guest Faculty
Department of Library and Information Science
E-mail: chetu.boriwal@gmail.com

1. Expertise areas:

Research, Library Classification, Cataloguing, Information Sources, Information Services

2. Role and responsibilities:

- Teaching and supervising undergraduate and Post graduate students
- Assisting with departmental duties and providing academic support to Dean and staff
- Providing a platform to the students by encouraging their participation in seminars and presentations.
- Providing Professor and departmental head with feedback on students progress

3. Future perspectives for University growth and up liftmen:

- Creating a better place for teaching and learning;
- Assisting with National & International level seminars conduct by the University
- Assisting with the University in research and extension activities

4. Research Activities:

- 12 paper published in leading journals & national & international conferences based on my research & many more are in pipeline.
- Attend 14 national & international conferences/workshops.
- Advising P.G. research scholars.

6. Education and Experience:

- Passed M. LIB., cleared UGC-NET and submitted Ph.D. on e-resources in consortium. It will help collection building.
- Passed PGDCSA which will help in library automation.
- Eight years experience in various libraries as a Librarian of repute such as R.D. Gardi Medical College, Ujjain and 1 year teaching experience.